

Standards and Guidelines: High Performance Building Guidelines

www.nyc.gov/html/ddc/html/design/reports.shtml

Summary

Helps participants in building development better understand their role in producing improved, more efficient buildings with reduced environmental impact.

Owner: City of New York Department of Design & Construction

Type					Themes
Strategic	Management reporting	Design or data specific	Assess./indicator framework	Standards	General sustainability	Carbon / climate	Sector Specific	Other
Country	US -New York			Development	One of eight sustainable design reports and manuals listed on the Department of Design and Construction website. This report couples with Local law 86 (2005) which requires many DDC building projects to achieve a LEED rating of Certified or Silver.
Sector	Buildings
Published	1999
Access	Free to download
Target group / users	Designed for use by all participants in the New York City capital construction process.			Key sustainability themes	Key technical aspects covered are on: 1. Site design & planning 2. Building energy use 3. Indoor environment 3. Material & product selection 4. Water management 5. Construction administration 6. Commissioning 7. Operations & maintenance

Note: "Free to download" does not necessarily imply that it is free for commercial use.