

Summary

This is a framework document to provide guidance on achieving sustainability in the provision of safe water resources in rural areas. It outlines design and implementation principles for sustainability and WaterAid's minimum commitments

*Find in the publications section

Owner: WaterAid

Type					Themes
Strategic	Management reporting	Design or data specific	Assess./indicator framework	Standards	General sustainability	Carbon / climate	Sector Specific	Other
Country	International (developing countries)			Development	The intention of the framework was for it to be adapted and applied across developing countries. It is part of WaterAid's Global Strategy 2009-2015, which consists of policies, frameworks, guidelines and country strategies.
Sector	Water
Published	2011
Access	Free to download
Target group / users	Intended primarily for WaterAid Country Programmes, but could be used by partner organisations and others in the sector.			Key sustainability themes	Developing poor communities (through provision of adequate water supply and sanitation services, where the technology and service supplied is fit for purpose and the demand).			