About this workshop

This special two-day event has been designed to provide a detailed insight into the presentation and analysis of claims under the FIDIC 1999 Contracts. The programme has been designed to be highly practical and includes active participation in 'hands-on' workshops and discussion sessions.

The workshop leaders are highly experienced in the use of the FIDIC Contracts and Claims.

The International Federation of Consulting Engineers (FIDIC) has, over the years, issued a number of standard documents for use on construction projects. The contracts which are currently in most common use around the world are: The Conditions of Contract for Construction (The 1999 Red Book); The Conditions of Contract for Plant and Design-Build (The 1999 Yellow Book); The Conditions of Contract for EPC Turnkey Projects (The 1999 Silver Book).

For more information about FIDIC, please go to www.fidic.org

Who should attend?

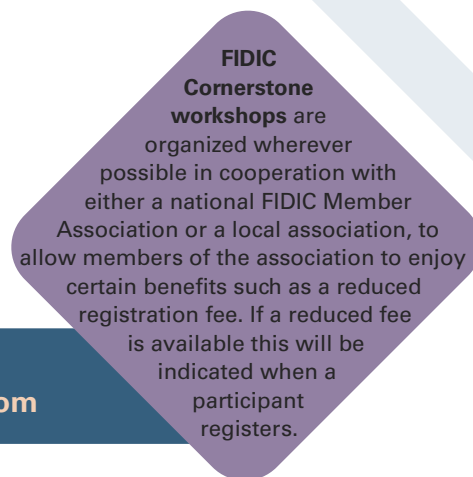

This event will be of great interest to all those actively involved in international projects, including representatives from Consulting Engineers, Contractors, Funding Agencies, Employers, Insurers, Manufacturing Organisations as well as representatives from the Legal and other Construction Professions.

Certificates and documentation

Participants will receive a FIDIC course completion certificate, copies of the FIDIC Red, Yellow & Silver 1999 contracts referred to during the event, plus full documentation.

Venues and date

Please check our website www.cornerstone-seminars.com for our current schedule. Cornerstone venue details are confirmed to delegates following registration. Workshops are held at outstanding venues.

Cornerstone also provide in-house FIDIC seminars which can be tailored to your company's needs. Email: info@cornerstone-seminars.com

About the speakers

Edward Corbett is the managing director of Corbett & Co International Construction Lawyers Ltd, a practice specialising in international construction law. His experience includes ICC arbitration, litigation and dispute adjudication as well as contract drafting and procurement strategy. He has worked for contractors as well as for employers, funders and consultants. He regularly advises some of Europe's major construction players and his usual caseload involves projects in Europe, Africa, South-East Asia, the Indian Sub-continent and the Middle East. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, an accredited adjudicator and mediator and a Panellist of the American Arbitration Association. He is the author of 'FIDIC 4th – A Practical Legal Guide'. He has lectured extensively on construction law and in particular on FIDIC's standard forms of contract.

He is previous co-chair of the International Construction Projects committee of the International Bar Association and is a member of the Working Group of FIDIC which drafted the Short Form of Contract and the Dredging Contract. Corbett & Co is an affiliate member of FIDIC.

Rob Palles-Clark has 26 years of experience in FIDIC Contracts and Claims, construction cost and contract consultancies and is a sought after expert in managing and defending FIDIC Claims. As a construction delay analyst and quantity surveyor he is involved in the preparation of estimates and bills of quantities and the post-contract financial administration of commercial projects, and extensive experience in delay and cost claim preparation, analysis, management and resolution. This experience has included working on a wide range of live project job sites. He has developed a recognised expertise in the use of critical path delay analysis techniques for the analysis of project delay.

Rob is regularly appointed as an independent expert witness on FIDIC Contracts in connection with delay analysis and/or quantum matters and has given evidence in the Technology and Construction Court. Rob has extensive international experience in the analysis and resolution of commercial and contractual problems on major building, civil engineering, mechanical and electrical, highway, rail and petrochemical contracts.

Rob has a BSc in Quantity Surveying; an MSc. in Construction Law & Arbitration, Kings College London; MBA Kingston University; he is a Fellow of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators; and an Adjudicator on the RICS, TeCSA, & RIBA panels. Rob is a Director of Blackrock Programme Management, specialising in delay and quantum expert work.
