About this workshop

This special two-day event has been designed to offer a complete up-to-date review of the effective understanding and use of the FIDIC Contracts currently in use. The FIDIC Contracts Module 1 Workshop programme has been designed to be highly practical and includes active participation in 'hands-on' workshops and discussion sessions.

The two workshop leaders are highly qualified in their experience of the FIDIC Contracts and are both authors of publications on the Contract Conditions.

The International Federation of Consulting Engineers (FIDIC) has, over the years, issued a number of standard documents for use on construction projects. The contracts which are currently in most common use around the world are: The Conditions of Contract for Construction (The 1999 Red Book); The Conditions of Contract for Plant and Design-Build (The 1999 Yellow Book); The Conditions of Contract for EPC Turnkey Projects (The 1999 Silver Book).

For more information about FIDIC, please go to www.fidic.org

Who should attend?

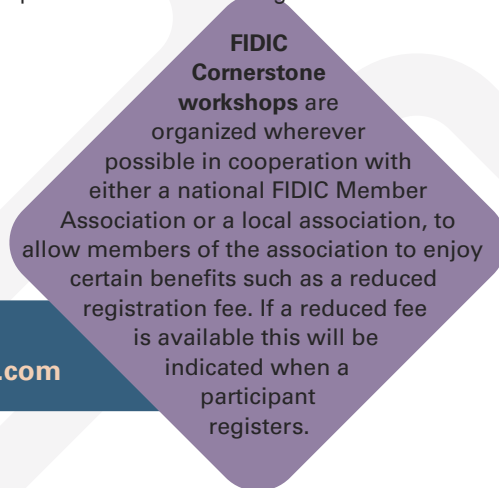

This event will be of great interest to all those actively involved in international projects, including representatives from Consulting Engineers, Contractors, Funding Agencies, Employers, Insurers, Manufacturing Organisations as well as representatives from the Legal and other Construction Professions.

Certificates, documentation & CPD Credits

Participants will receive a FIDIC course completion certificate, copies of the FIDIC Red, Yellow & Silver 1999 contracts books plus full written documentation. The seminar is eligible for 2 CPD credits in South Africa : Validation No: CESA-582-09/2017

About the speakers

Edward Corbett is the managing director of Corbett & Co International Construction Lawyers Ltd, a practice specialising in international construction law. His experience includes ICC arbitration, litigation and dispute adjudication as well as contract drafting and procurement strategy. He has worked for contractors as well as for employers, funders and consultants. He regularly advises some of Europe's major construction players and his usual caseload involves projects in Europe, Africa, South-East Asia, the Indian Sub-continent and the Middle East. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, an accredited adjudicator and mediator and a Panellist of the American Arbitration Association. He is the author of 'FIDIC 4th – A Practical Legal Guide'.

He has lectured extensively on construction law and in particular on FIDIC's standard forms of contract. He is previous co-chair of the International Construction Projects committee of the International Bar Association and is a member of the Working Group of FIDIC which drafted the Short Form of Contract and the Dredging Contract. Corbett & Co is an affiliate member of FIDIC.

Aisha Nadar joined Advokatfirman Runeland as a contract and dispute resolution consultant in September 2012, after having moved to Sweden. For over 25 years, Aisha has been actively involved in all phases of the negotiation and implementation of large-scale cross-border infrastructure programs, primarily in the defence area. Her procurement and international contract management experience includes holding senior level positions in the US, the Middle East and Europe.

Aisha advises parties on noncontentious procurement matters (contracts, procurement strategy and program management), including dispute prevention. She also acts as arbitrator, mediator and adjudicator and is retained regularly by parties, party counsel and arbitral tribunals in matters involving international arbitration, mediation and dispute boards. Aisha currently serves as a member and a principal drafter of FIDIC's Update Task Group updating the FIDIC 1999 Red, Yellow and Silver Conditions of Contract and as the Special FIDIC Procurement Advisor on Multilateral Development Bank matters. She also currently serves as a member of The Standing Committee of the ICC International Centre for Expertise and ICC Task force for review of ICC ADR Rules, the ICC Rules for Expertise and the ICC Dispute Board Rules. She is an officer of the International Construction Projects Committee of International Bar Association. She is a regularly invited speaker at FIDIC International Users' Conferences.

Aisha's broad educational background includes a BS Electrical Engineering from University of Nebraska, an MBA from University of Texas-Austin and an LL.M. in International Commercial Dispute Resolution from Queen Mary, University of London.
